CHARLES-TOWN, (So. Carolina) November 12.

[The Reply of Rawlins Lowndes, Eſq; Speaker of the Commons Houſe of Aſſembly of South-Carolina, to ſome Reflections upon his Conduct, in the Governor's Speech, inſerted in our laſt Weeks Paper.]

Mr. POWELL,

HIS Excellency the Governor, having been pleaſed, in the moſt public Manner, before the General Aſſembly, in his Speech at the Diſſolution, to arraign my Conduct as Speaker of the Commons Houſe, without hearing what might be ſaid in my Behalf; it becomes neceſſary for me to apply to your Paper, in order to vindicate myſelf from the Imputation of "having acted in an unprecedented "Manner," which his Excellency lays to my Charge.

I mean not to enter into a Diſcuſſion of the Point, whether "the Commander in Chief of this Pro- "vince, has a Right, at all Times, to inſpect the "Journals of the General Aſſembly."——The Governor thinking proper to ſay ſo, does by no Means aſcertain the Right, or make it indiſputable: But, however that may be, ſurely, it does not preclude the Speaker of the Houſe, from peruſing and inſpecting the Journals alſo; they are properly and neceſſarily under his Direction, to correct Errors, ſupply Omiſſions, and prevent Miſtakes: Beſides, it is abſolutely incumbent on him, to be particularly attentive to the Courſe and different Stages of the ſeveral Matters depending before the Houſe, that he might, with more Clearneſs and Regularity, in their due Order, lay them before the Houſe.—— The Neceſſity therefore, of a frequent Peruſal of the Journals, is apparent to every Man of Conſideration. I had been but two Days in the Chair, at the Time the Governor refers to. It was proper for me, at my firſt Entrance into Office, to obtain all the Helps I could, towards enabling me to diſcharge my Duty: The Poſſeſſion therefore of the Journals, for one Afternoon only, ſurely, cannot be deemed ſo high an Offence, as to operate and contribute to the Diſſolution of the General Aſſembly.

That my Conduct was not either improper or unreaſonable in taking with me the Journals, after the Houſe had adjourned, for the Remainder of the Day, for the Purpoſe above mentioned, need not, I think, to be further inſiſted upon.——That it was "unprecedented," (as charged upon me by the Governor) I abſolutely deny. During my being Speaker formerly, I frequently did it; and, I preſume every Speaker before, and ſince that Time, has done the ſame.—I do not ſee how he can qualify himſelf, for the Duty of his Station, when a Variety of Buſineſs is depending, without a very cloſe and frequent Reference to the Journals.

That the Governor "wrote to me, to demand "the Journals, and could not procure them until "the next Day," a few Circumſtances explained, will exculpate me, I hope, from any Blame on this Head alſo.——When the Governor's Note was left at my Houſe, I was from Home; it was brought me by my Servant at a Friend's Houſe (where I was engaged for the Evening) pretty late. I believe Nine o'Clock, juſt going to Supper; too late, I apprehend, for an immediate Compliance with his Excellency's Demand: I muſt have returned Home, and then carried the Journals myſelf to him, not having any other proper Means of Conveyance. The next Morning I roſe early, purpoſely ſooner than uſual; carried the Journals myſelf to the Clark's Houſe, and deſired they might be ſent to the Governor. The Clerk was ill in Bed; and I ſuppoſe it was from that Accident, the Journals were not ſooner conveyed to his Excellency. Theſe Facts and Obſervations, properly attended to, I flatter myſelf, will ſhew that the Governor's Cenſure of me was miſapplied. My Idea is, and my Sentiments are known to many Gentlemen, that if the Governor has a Right to inſpect the Journals, it is below the Dignity of the Houſe, or its Speaker, to uſe any Shifts or Evaſions to keep them from him; if he has no Right, his Claim ought to be diſputed upon its proper Grounds. What I did, was of my own mere Motion, I had no Authority or Sanction of the Houſe for it.

I am, your humble Servant.
RAWLINS LOWNDES.

VIENNA, September 6.

NOTWITHSTANDING the conferrences are broken up between the Ruſſians and Turks, a certain period was to be allowed (forty days it we remember right) before hoſtilities commenced on either ſide; ſo that it is poſſible matters may be ſtill be compoſed without much bloodſhed.

Minſk, in Poland, Sept. 18. The Ruſſians, after the example of the Pruſſians and Auſtrians, have taken poſſeſſion of Poliſh Livoniz and White Ruſſia; on the 21ſt of this month the inhabitants of this new province are to do homage to the Empreſs of Ruſſia and her ſucceſſors. The Courts of Juſtice are to remain upon the old footing. No new taxes are to be laid in this province, and cuſtomary revenues are already paid to the Ruſſians.

Wilna, Sept. 22. The Ruſſians yeſterday took poſſeſſion of the country aſſigned to them at the late diviſion, which is about a third of Lithuania, viz. beginning at the North, and following the courſe of the rivers Duna, Ula, Uſſa, and the Nieper, together with Poliſh Livonia, the palatines of Potzk, Whitepſlock, Orſſa, Mociſlaw, Rohaczow, Rzeczica, to the river Dezna. This vaſt extent of country is divided into two grand governments: The firſt towards the North, the capital of which is Poloczk, is under General Kreczetnikow, and the ſecond towards the South, the capital of which is Mohilow, under Colonel Kokhowſki.

Letters from Dantzick inform us, that the Pruſſian Reſident had declared, by order of his maſter, that the new toll eſtabliſhed on the Weſterdiep or Water of Dantzick, muſt continue to be paid, he being determined not to recede from his demand; in conſequence of which that city muſt aboliſh their own duty, as, by continuing it, they would intirely deſtroy their commerce.

LONDON, September 29,

October 2. The cabinet council did not break up yeſterday 'till after four o'clock; it is rumoured it was in conſequence of ſome intentions againſt Denmark.

The King of Pruſſia has taken poſſeſſion of the diſtrict of Great Poland, ſituate between the Drage and the Netze, as well as of the country of Pruſſia and Pomerania on both ſides of the Viſtula, which the crown of Poland has hitherto held under the name of Poliſh Pruſſia, except the cities of Thorn and Dantzick.

All the lateſt advices from Spain agree, that all the Spaniſh ſettlements in the South Seas are putting into a ſtate of defence with all poſſible diſpatch.

Advices is received that the King of Pruſſia has taken poſſeſſion of Cracow, and placed a garriſon of 5000 men there to defend it for the King of Poland againſt his rebellious ſubjects; but the ſame advices ſay, it is apprehended that he has other deſigns in view.

Advices are ſaid to be received from Liſbon, that the caſtle of Eſtremadura in Spain, had revolted and murdered the Governor thereof, and that a body of troops had marched to prevent any farther ill conſequences.

Bets were on Thurſday laſt laid by a great man at the Smyrna, that our aſſiſtance either by land or ſea would be demanded by four different powers on the continent.

October 6. The King of Pruſſia has given orders for raiſing fifteen new regiments, five of which are filled up from the ſupernumeraries of his other regiments. They were all to be completed by the beginning of this month, in order to take poſſeſſion of his new acquiſitions in Poliſh Pruſſia.

October 8. The contents of the budget for the enſuing Year, are expected to give the greateſt ſatisfaction, as we hear Lord North is aſſiſted in forming it by ſome of the firſt Perſonages in the Kingdom.

October 9. Yeſterday morning at 11 o'clock, a court of Huſtings was held at Guild hall for the purpoſe of declaring the poll for Lord Mayor for the enſuing year.

The Sheriffs, attended by their officers, aſcended the huſtings a little after eleven, and afterwards ſat down to caſt up the poll, which took up about two hours. When the poll was caſt up, the common ſerjeant came forward, and declared the numbers as they ſtood at the cloſe of the poll. For Alderman Wilkes, 2301. Townſend, 2278. Halifax, 2126. Shakeſpeare 1912.

The poll being thus declared, Mr. Wilkes came forward, and addreſſed the Livery in the following ſpeech.

WILKES's SPEECH,
To the LIVERY at Guild-hall, October 8, 1772.

"Gentlemen and Brother Liverymen,

"I WANT powers to expreſs the deep ſenſe I have of the diſtinguiſhing honour you have done me by a majority of your free ſuffrages. I find you are now, on the moſt frivolous pretexts, to be harraſſed by a ſcrutiny; but I know the event will only confirm the juſtice of the poll, and demonſtrate the fairneſs and honour of the proceedings of my friends during the whole election.

"The preſent ſheriffs, Gentlemen, in the courſe of this election, have maintained a firmneſs and impartiality, which are the moſt pleaſing omens of a patriotick conduct for the whole year of their ſheriffalty.

"During the preſent conteſt a remarkable paper has been publiſhed relative to the liberty of the preſs, one of the great bulwarks of all our liberties. I find it authenticated by one of our own body, a Freeman of Pater noſter-row, Mr. Thomas Evans. In that paper we are told that Col. Burgoyne, Chairman of the ſelect Committee of the Houſe of Commons, for inquiring into East India affairs, came into this City, and threatened the printer, in conſequence of his having publiſhed their minutes, that if he did not give up the perſon or perſons who favoured him with the proceedings of that committee, the Houſe of Commons would proceed againſt him with the utmoſt ſeverity. I rejoice, Gentlemen, that the honeſt Printer has not been frightened by ſo inſolent and illegal a menace; and I here declare that he or any other fellow citizen, ſhall have the moſt ſpirited legal ſupport from me, both for his own private protection and ſecurity, and for the effectual puniſhment of every violator of the laws of our country, and the franchiſes of our city. While God continues me health to do my duty among you, the powers with which you have armed me, ſhall be exerted againſt every attempt of violence and injuſtice, even from the higheſt uſurped authority. Our right, as conſtituents, to be fully informed of the proceedings of our repreſentatives in Parliament, has been clearly demonſtrated, but the force of truth is not likely to prevail againſt men loſt to all ſenſe of ſhame, even ſo atrociouſly wicked, beyond the example of the moſt barbarous nations and times, as to corrupt the great fountain of publick juſtice, by eraſing a judicial record, till that hour held always ſacred in every civilizing country. I congratulate you, Gentlemen, that you poſſeſs ſeveral excellent magiſtrates, who in a good cauſe have the fortitude to meet the rage of a ſenate, compoſed chiefly of hirelings and ſlaves. I fear, however, that your preſent Mayor will neither merit, nor even wiſh this praiſe, for it will be very new and wonderful indeed, if ſuch a man ſhould riſk the ſmalleſt perſonal advantage or convenience for you or the public; but as we have among us Magiſtrates of ability, firmneſs and intrepidity, real and warm friends of the people, I am perſuaded that our liberties and franchiſes are ſafe againſt every hoſtile attack. The event muſt be happy, the defeat of deſpotiſm, the victory of the conſtitution.

"I can never, gentlemen, ſufficiently acknowledge the honour you have done me, by the unanimous reſolution of your intire approbation of my conduct during the paſt ſheriffalty. Permit me likewiſe, on this occaſion, thus publickly to return thanks to my late colleague. Through the whole courſe of the laſt year he has given repeated proofs of his ſteady attachment to the cauſe of liberty, and to the duties of his office. He has ſhared with me the various fatigues and difficulties inſeparable from our late charge. I have regularly experienced from him the moſt obliging readineſs to leſſen the weight of whatever was painful or oppreſſive, and to cooperate in every meaſure for the common welfare, and the good of this capital. Your private feeling, gentlemen, will, I am ſure, juſtify me in this public tribute of the gratitude I owe to ſo worthy a friend, and excellent a magiſtrate, as Mr. Alderman Bull."

To this ſpeech was echoed an univerſal ſhout of applauſe; after which Mr. Bull came in, and addreſſed the livery in a modeſt, ſenſible ſpeech.

The common ſerjeant then declared, that a ſcrutiny was demanded by each candidate ſeparately againſt the reſt, which the Sheriffs had granted, and which would commence on the 24th inſtant.

Oct. 9. The reaſon why the Parliament is to meet earlier the approaching ſeſſion than uſual, is, that the affairs of the East-India company, which are now almoſt at an entire ſtop, may be diſcuſſed without loſs of time.

Oct. 13. Mr. Wilkes, 'tis ſaid, has been promiſed no leſs than three ſets of horſes, by three different Noblemen, for his ſtate coach, ſhould he be choſen Lord Mayor.—Thoſe intended for him by Lord T———le, are ſuppoſed the moſt valuable being purchaſed for the immenſe ſum of 240 l.

October 14. An Engliſhman having remarked on the general depravity of the age, and inſtanced in the particular depravities which mark the conduct of all degrees of people, from the Peer to the Pickpocket, concludes that we ſhall ſoon be ripe for the tyranny of man, or the vengeance of Heaven.

Extract of a letter from Tripoli, in Barbary, July 31, 1772

"A courier is arrived here from Cairo, diſpatched by Mehemet Aboudaab and Sidi Muley Ali, with advice, that a great Revolution had happened in Egypt in favour of Ali Bey.

"We hear, that the Grand Signor is to ſend 12,000 men to Egypt againſt Ali Bey, and that a number of veſſels are already preparing for the purpoſe."

October. 15. Yeſterday the ſtatue of his Majeſty on horſeback, erected in the centure of Berkely-ſquare, was opened; the horſe is ſtained to repreſent Bronze, and makes a fine appearance.

Private letters received by the laſt poſt from Ruſſia abſolutely confirm the report of a revolution there; and add, that a majority of the Miniſtry are to take up their winter quarters in Siberia. Gazetteer.

Extract of a letter from Copenhagen, Sept. 29.

We receive every day more intelligence relative to the diſturbances in Norway. Ever ſince our Empire exiſted, it never was in ſuch diſtreſs as it is at preſent. A diſmemberment threatens it on all ſides; and what elſe could be expected? It is a neceſſary conſequence of an ——— King, a female Regent, and a wretched Miniſtry."

Yeſterday a proclamation was iſſued out by order of his Majeſty, for the Parliament, which ſtands prorogued to the 17th of November next, to meet on Tueſday the 24th of the ſaid month, for the diſpatch of divers weighty and important affairs.

Atteſted copies of the poll books for Lord Mayor were delivered for the inſpection of the Scrutineers, on each candidate paying 100l.

The late advices received from Denmark ſhew very plainly, that that kingdom will ſoon experience a capital revolution, which will not terminate 'till the puſillanimous Chriſtian be ſupplanted by the ambitious Frederick. The Queen Dowager will not ceaſe from her machinations till ſuch an event be accompliſhed, to which the degradation of the unfortunate Carolina Matilda was but a neceſſary prelude, whoſe innocence nothing yet has tranſpired to indicate ſo much as the change of affairs juſt intimated.

The diſmemberment of Poland, the revolution in Sweden, and that ſuppoſed to have already happened, or that will ſoon happened in Denmark, form an aſſemblage of events ſo critical, as have not been equalled in the world before. In this juncture of affairs, will Lord North promiſe a ten years peace to Great Britain?

This morning orders came to the Tower, for the piquet guard to hold themſelves in readineſs to march at a minute's warning, in caſe they ſhould be wanted to quell any diſturbance which the ſailors may raiſe.

This afternoon ſeveral of the riotous ſailors were committed to Clerkenwell Bridewel.

Quere, If any inſtance can be produced of a Lord Mayor, fairly choſen by the citizens, being refuſed by the Barons of the Exchequer?

Laſt night thirty guineas were laid to ten, at a great tavern in this city, that there would be no Scrutiny.

Oct. 16, His Majeſty's Conſuls at Tripoli and Tunis are to be recalled, and no other to be ſent for the future.

A letter from Dantzick mentions, that the tax upon French wines is ordered to be doubled.

Letters from Leghorn adviſe, that the Senate of Venice have openly declared war againſt the Knights of Malta.

They write from the North of Ireland, that the inſurrections formed by the Hearts of Steel, are now happily ſuppreſſed, and that every thing is again in a ſtate of tranquility. But the ſame accounts add, that emigrations to America were never ſo frequent, and that the principal gentlemen are uſing every poſſible means to keep their tenants reſident on their eſtates.

We are aſſured that the late tranſactions in Denmark, relative to the Queen, will be laid before the Parliament the enſuing winter; and 'tis thought a war between the two nations will be the conſequence of it at laſt.

We are aſſured that Capt. Jones is not only out of Newgate, but has received a free pardon. Our intelligence affirms, that he has appeared in the Park, playhouſe, and other public places (rather indeed incog. but not in any great degree ſo) and that ſeveral people of faſhion and conſequence have been ſeen to ſpeak to him as familiarly as if he had never been charged with the hateful crime for which he was convicted; and ſome perſons, of no little conſideration, have even permitted his viſits.

When General Stutterheim arrived, on the 13th paſt, before Elbing, in Poliſh Pruſſia, he ſummoned the garriſon to ſurrender, in his Pruſſian Majeſty's name. The commanding officer having received no orders from his Court to acknowledge the ſovereignty of his Pruſſian Majeſty, refuſed to obey: upon which the Pruſſians immediately pointed their cannon againſt the gate, called St. Mary's gate, and for ſome time made an inceſſant fire upon it, both with artillery and ſmall arms. The garriſon finding themſelves unable to ſuſtain the charge, ſubmitted, and were ſuffered to depart, under convoy of a Pruſſian Commiſſary, who had orders to direct their march.

Advices from the Danube aſſure, that the Porte is endeavouring to ſecure the Court of Vienna in her intereſt, by a tender of Belgrade and all Servia to the Empreſs Queen.

There is but little probability of Lord Camden's coming into office at preſent.

We hope, that, ſince the Parliament is to meet on the 26th of November, for the diſpatch of buſineſs, it will be that buſineſs which ſtands moſt in need of diſpatch, the reducing the enormous prices of every neceſſary of life. How ſtrange! that in ſo pious a reign, the complaints and miſeries of the poor ſhould be greater than in any former!—yet 'tis ſtranger that not even an attempt is made to relieve them.

Things are now come to ſuch a paſs, that the poor muſt either ſtarve, or ſteal and be hanged. Conſider this, ye rulers and lawgivers of the land!

The ſailors who were preſent at the taking the Havanna ſay, that Lord Albermarle (lately deceaſed) has now received his full dividend.

CHARLESTOWN, November 24.

Thurſday laſt put into this port, having met with bad weather, the brig Charlotte, Valentine Baker, maſter, bound from London for the river St. Lawrence, out 8 weeks.

Friday laſt arrived here in nine days from New-York, the Brig Hero, Charles Chadwick, Maſter, who on his paſſage had the misfortune to run foul of a Whale, by which accident his veſſel received conſiderable damage.

WILLIAMSBURG, November 26.

The Schooner Hansford, Capt Wilſon, arrived at Norfolk from Antigua, on the 18th ult. in lat. 19, lon. 60, W. fell in with a Guineaman, the crew of which had been murdered by the negroes.* Capt. Wilſon, in attempting to come near, was fired at with Muſkets; and as he had neither boat nor arms, and had been diſmaſted ſome days before, was obliged to leave her. She appeared to be a New-York built brig, with yellow ſides, black bends, a white bottom, black ſtern and red mouldings, a black ſtreak on her quarters, and red mouldings, had a green ſtreak all round her below the top of the gunwale, a kind of a billet head, with an image on it painted green, and had a ſquare Tuck, with a very lage boat on deck.

[* Quere, how was this known?]

BOSTON, December 4.

We hear from Amherſt county, New-Hampſhire, That laſt Week was committed to gaol there one Wilkins, who, having had a quarrel with his father, threw a ſtick of wood at him, which wounded him ſo that he died ſoon after.

NEW-YORK, December 10.

On Friday laſt ſeven Independant Companies of Foot of the Militia in this City, being formed into a Battalion in the following order, viz. The Grenadiers, two Companies of the Governor's Guards, the Rangers, the Germans, one of the Companies of the Artillery, and the Light Infantry, were, for the firſt time, publickly reviewed. His Excellency Governor Tryon, and the other ſuperior Officers, with a ſplendid Aſſembly of the principal Ladies and Gentlemen, appeared in the Field. The Officers of the ſeveral Companies, performed their Parts in their reſpective Stations, with great Skill and Regularity; and the Men went through the different Exerciſes and Manœuvres, with an Order and Dexterity, which did them much Honour. In fine, the Neatneſs of their Uniforms, the Readineſs and Grace with which the various Evolutions were performed, and the Propriety obſervable on the Whole, gave much Satisfaction to the numerous Spectators, and muſt be agreeable to every one who wiſhes to ſee a well diſciplined Militia amongſt us. After the Buſineſs of the Day was concluded, an elegant Entertainment was given to the Officers, by their worthy Commander the Governor.

The following remarkable Entry, lately made at the Cuſtom Houſe at Montreal in Canada, from one Houſe there, of Goods ſhipped on board a ſhip bound to London, may give us ſome Idea of the Importance of the Fur Trade from that Country, viz. 16 019 Beaver Skins, 6990 Martens, 530 Minks, 2162 Otters, 363 Fiſhers, 9916 Rackoons, 420 Foxes, 1701 Bears, 8407 Pounds of dreſſed Deers Leather, 11302 Deer Skins in the Hair, 855 Elks, 2512 Muſquaſh, 215 Woolf, 72 caſed Cats, 1237 opened Cats, 3 Beaver Eaters, 394 pounds of Caſtorum, 11½ Tons of Pot Aſh.

A little after 12 o'Clock on Monday Night laſt, a Fire was diſcovered in the Sail Loft, occupied by Mr. John Wilſon near Beckman's Slip, but he being up and near at Hand, himſelf threw the Things that had taken Fire, out of the window into the Street, where it was extinguiſhed without any other Damage than the Loſs of a ſmall Parcel of Cordage and part of an old Sail. Mr. Wilſon himſelf has ſent us a circumſtantial Account of the above Accident, wherein he contradicts a Report that the Fire happened in the Printing Office, or thro' Careleſneſs in any Perſon; he ſuppoſes that when for a few Minutes he ſtepped out, the Needle with which he was at work might have fallen on a Cole in the Stove, and that the Thread taking Fire communicated it to the Sail, &c.

POET'S CORNER.

From the Middlesex Journal, of October 17, 1772.

The following inscription was found last night pasted upon an Equestrian Statue newly erected in a certain square, at the west end of a great city.

" 'TIS——Himself—who stiff as any steeple,
Bestrides his horse as he bestrides his people:
O'er them he holds the sword, nor spares the spur,
They foam—and bite the bit—but never stir;
Without he's fair, and form'd like an Apollo;
Within how dull—how very black and hollow!
Britannia mourns her fate, but France and Spain,
Cry—Heav'n be prais'd! long may the Ty— reign
The mask of virtue and of law to wear,
Adulterers—Sodomites—and Murderers spare;
Patron of vice, and ev'ry lawless lust;
The scourge of all that's Godly, all that's just:
His Court the school of fraud and fornication,
And every evil to corrupt a nation.
More fatal mischiefs on his Se——r waits,
Than on the arms of all the Bourbon States.

LONDON, September 11.

The firſt conſequence of the late revolution in Sweden, relative to its meaſures towards foreign powers, it is imagined, will be a formal demand of a reſtitution of the German dominions wreſted from that kingdom by the Danes in the latter part of the reign of Charles the Twelfth, part of which (Bremen and Verden) the then King of Denmark ſold for a ſum of money to George the Firſt.

The lateſt advices from Stockholm ſay, that every thing is in the greateſt confuſion there, many of the principal Nobility and Clergy and even ſome of the general officers of the firſt rank having abſented themſelves; it is added, that the army, conſiſting of 16 battalions of infantry and four regiments of cavalry, at preſent form a circle round that capital, in order, as well to intimidate the inhabitants, as to prevent any more perſons of weight and influence from making their eſcape.

Sept. 12. It is aſſerted, that Prince Frederick Adolphus, ſecond brother to the King of Sweden, was lately incog. ſome days with his Pruſſian Majeſty; and that he ſet out from Berlin (it is imagined with his uncle's laſt inſtructions) exactly that day three weeks that the Swediſh Monarch openly declared himſelf abſolute.

Sept. 15. Private letters from Paris affirm, that no leſs than four hundred and fifty thouſand pound ſterling has been remitted to his Swediſh Majeſty by the Court of Verſailles within theſe laſt four months. It is added, that theſe remittances were made at different times in moderate ſums by the way of London, Amſterdam and Hamburgh, as if for the uſe of ſome merchants in Berlin, in order to avoid all cauſe of jealouſy and ſuſpicion.

Extract of a letter from Stockholm, Aug. 26.

"The revolution that has juſt happened here affords matter of admiration to all. The firſt ſtep was the departure of the Princes from this city, under pretence of meeting the old Queen, who was expected from Stralſund about the 10th inſt. On the 12th a Captain in one of the Princes regiments quartered in and about Chriſtianſtadt, took poſſeſſion of that place, and iſſued a manifeſto, declaring, that he and ſome of his friends had joined, in order to relieve their country from its preſent diſtreſſed ſituation, which could not be done till their gracious ſovereign got more power, &c. A great officer hearing the uproar, ſet off with all haſte for Stockholm, and gave the alarm. The Senate immediately ordered a General Officer to poſt down, and endeavour to ſeize the revolters, whom they looked upon as crazy, and the King feigned ſurpriſe; but upon the order for ſending down the above officer being preſented to him, he refuſed to ſign it; however, they thought proper to put his Majeſty's name and ſeal to it.

"In the night of the 18th an expreſs arrived from Prince Charles, and in the morning early his Majeſty called a meeting of the Senators, when he began to be a little warm with the Miniſter for diſpatching the orders without his conſent; who, in place of anſwering, inſiſted that the Senate ſhould ſee Prince Charles's letter. This his Majeſty refuſed; upon which the Miniſter ſaid, that it was full time for them to ſecure the King's perſon, and offered to take his Majeſty's ſword. On this his Majeſty drew his ſword, and called to his life guards from the window, and in an inſtant they were in the hall, and at his Majeſty's deſire ſecured all the Senators.

"It is expected every thing will ſoon be in order, and the kingdom has great expectation from the government of ſo good a King."

A letter from Peterſburg ſays, "A conſpiracy was lately diſcovered againſt the favourite, Count Orloff, and his Brother; but it was cruſhed without noiſe, and about ninety different people were ſent into exile in Siberia."

Sept 19. A letter from Holland ſays, "A rupture is likely to ſucceed to the differences lately ariſen between the Dutch and the Swedes, a report being current here, that the King of Sweden had, by an edict of Council, ordered all the Dutch ſubjects to leave Swediſh Pomerania."

Sept. 22. Yeſterday ſome advices, ſaid to be of great importance, arrived at St. James's, from M. Erneſt our charge des affairs at the court of Copenhagen.

Theſe letters add, that a revolution is expected every day in the Daniſh dominions, and even the knowing ones heſitate not to ſay that this revolution will occaſion infinitely more bloodſhed than the former did.

It is ſaid that had Mr. Fordyce been only able to maintain his ground till now he muſt have neceſſarily acquired half a million of money by the fall of India ſtock. But his web was ſo finely ſpun, that it cracked prematurely and left him a beggar when he expected to be the wealthieſt man in the kingdom.

A reſolution has been lately taken to keep up a ſtanding army, of 30,000 men in Hanover, to be ready againſt any ſudden emergency. This cauſes much ſpeculation.

A ſquadron of men of war completely manned, with ſix months proviſion on board, are conſtantly to be kept at Spithead, to ſail on the ſhorteſt notice, whereſoever occaſion may require.

Some advices from Berlin mention, that the King of Pruſſia has lately laid claim to ſome places of Swediſh Pomerania as part of his hereditary right.

On Saturday laſt, at 50 minutes after two o'clock, India ſtock fell down to 188, which was juſt 14 per cent. in 24 hours.

They write from the Hague, that the ſtates have iſſued orders for 30 battalions and fifty ſquadrons, amounting to 30,000 Men, to be in readineſs for encamping by the firſt of October next.

The ſame accounts adviſe, that the ſtates have after all the oppoſition made by ſome of the provinces, and endeavours of the French and Spaniſh Ambaſſadors to prevent it, at laſt agreed upon an augmentation of their forces, to the great ſatisfaction of the people in general.

There is now a diſpute ſubſiſting between the two principal colleges of the Empire, that of the Electoral College; and that of the College of Princes, concerning their ſeveral rights, about which they have carried their contention to a very great length.

MACHINE to dreſs FLOUR.

THE King has been pleaſed to grant unto JOHN MILNE of Mancheſter, his royal letters patent, for all his colonies in America, &c. for the ſole making and vending his new invented machines, for the dreſſing the flour of wheat, &c. which machines are found to be of great utility by all perſons who have them in uſe; they not only make the flour look better, but alſo make it uſe better, as they make it more lively, and will diſpatch three times as much buſineſs in the ſame time, as the common method of bolting with cloths, and they will do that buſineſs at one operation, which, to be done with cloths, requires ſeveral, for they will dreſs fine flour, two ſeconds and three ſeconds, and clean the bran at one operation; or they may make two ſorts, or only one ſort of flour, by moving the partitions within the box, juſt as the perſon pleaſes who attends it; and conſidering their duration, are much cheaper than cloths. Alſo, his new invented machines for cleaning wheat, barley, &c. which takes out ſeeds, duſt, &c. and will break and deſtroy ſmut-balls, and give a brightneſs and luſtre to the grain.

The ſaid machines are to be ſold by JOHN MILNE, and Co. at their houſe in Manchester; or by applying to James Milne (ſon of the ſaid John Milne) who is now at Mr. Carleton's, near the Fort, in New-York.

Juſt imported in the laſt veſſels from ENGLAND,
A freſh COLLECTION of the abovementioned
MACHINES.

To the PUBLICK.

HAVING had an experience of Mr. Milne's new invented patent machines, for bolting flour and cleaning wheat, at my mill, where they are now to be ſeen at work, at Long-Iſland—— I think it my duty to declare, that they are a curious, expeditious and elegant contrivance, and what, in my opinion, will anſwer every purpoſe for which they are deſigned, and likewiſe be of great ſervice to the publick. JACOB SEBRING, junr.

To the PUBLICK.

I think it incumbent on me, for the good of the community, and particularly of thoſe who are manufacturers of flour, to declare, that upon trial, I have found Mr. Milne's machine anſwer the purpoſes of bolting, for which they are intended; infinitely better than the old method of doing it with cloths, as they really bolt three times as quick without the leaſt exaggeration, and are a very ingenious contrivance.
